Course Information

Ano Letivo: 2019/2020

Unidade curricular: Geography and Gender in a Global Context (Option)

Docente coordenador: Margarida Queirós

Docentes: Margarida Queirós

ECTS: 6

Carga Horária semanal: 2h

Tipologia: 20 TP + 14 OT

---

Syllabus

Theme 1. Geography and Gender: theoretical and methodological approaches.

Theme 2. Gender, space and place: daily life frameworks in urban and rural areas.

Theme 3. Gender, territory, environment and development.

Theme 4. Gender and territory: from local to global and postcolonial geographies.

---

Objectives of the course and skills to be acquired

Goals:
- Understand the importance of gender mainstreaming in geographic analysis.
- Identify key concepts in ‘gender geography’.
- Understand the analytical capacity of the category ‘gender’.
- Recognize the main contributions to the inclusion of gender perspective in geography and current challenges.
- Contribute to the knowledge of the relationship between people (bodies) with places, in public and private space, and in various geographic scales.
- Apply research methodologies specific to gender studies.

Skills:
- Develop skills to reformulate geographic research that incorporates a gender perspective.
- Deepen the capacity for reflection, analysis, discussion and interpretation, individually and in groups.
- Develop global citizenship skills.

---

References

---

Knowledge assessment

Normal regime: an oral presentation (20%), a practical exercise (30%) and a written essay on the topics discussed in the presentations (50%) and included in the required readings.

Special regime: an individual written test on the subjects included in the required readings (80%), and an oral discussion (20%).